

IMPORTANT. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.

This End User License Agreement (hereinafter, "EULA," "License," "Agreement" or "License Agreement") is a legal agreement between you and TypoBrand LLC (hereinafter "TypoBrand") for the product, designs and software that accompany this Agreement, and is also applicable to any media, printed materials, electronic documentation, updates, add-ons, Web services and any other material that may be associated with the product now or in the future. By downloading the Font Software and/or installing, copying, accessing or otherwise using the Font Software, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If you do not agree to the terms of this Agreement, do not purchase this License, download, install, or use the Font Software.

1. Definitions. "Font Software" is digital software that generates typeface and/or illustration designs when used with computers and other software (hereinafter "Font Software" or "Font[s]"). "Licensed Entity" is the individual, company, or legal entity purchasing this License (hereinafter "Licensed Entity" or "you"). "Licensed User" is one (1) human being using one (1) personal computer owned by the Licensed Entity (hereinafter "Licensed User" or "User[s]").

2. Grant of license. Upon payment in full, TypoBrand grants you a non-exclusive, terminable License to use the Font Software and any designs embodied therein together with any accompanying documentation, each in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

a. Basic license. If you purchase a basic License, this License allows use of the Font Software by not more than one (1) User at one (1) geographic location.

b. Multi-user license. If you purchase a License for use of the Font Software by more than one (1) User, you may install the Font Software at one (1) geographic location for the number of Users identified in the Order Receipt which is either sent to you by email or accompanies the Font Software.

c. Locations. Use of the Font Software at more than one (1) geographic location requires the purchase of a separate license for each location and for the number of Users authorized at each location, or the purchase of a special, multi-site license from TypoBrand.

d. Portable computers. Use of the Font Software on a portable computer is permitted provided that the portable computer is owned by the Licensed Entity and is not used to permit use of the Font Software by more than the number of Users licensed under this Agreement.

If at any time your use of the Font Software exceeds that permitted in the applicable License, you agree to immediately notify TypoBrand and purchase the appropriate license, which may or may not be granted at the discretion of TypoBrand.

3. One back-up. You are permitted to make one (1) back-up copy of the Font Software for archival purposes only. Unauthorized copying, creating derivative works, sharing, lending, renting, sale, or other unauthorized use or misuse of the original Font Software and/or the back-up copy is a material breach of this Agreement and will result in termination of this License.

4. Agencies. If you are a design consultancy, advertising agency, or purchasing this License for use by or on behalf of such an entity, the ultimate end user, if they will use the Font Software, should also purchase a license appropriate for their intended uses. Specifically, if your client will need and/or use copies of the Font Software, your client must also purchase a license suitable for their uses. The License granted herein does not extend to uses by temporary employees, freelancers or independent contractors using the Font Software or for other professional uses that are in excess of the number of Licensed Users. Specifically, you may not make copies greater than those authorized under this License for temporary use by freelancers, temporary employees or independent contractors.

5. No modification or customization. You are not permitted to alter the Font Software in any manner whatsoever. You are not authorized to make, or hire others to make, custom or derivative versions of the design embodied in the Font or of the Font Software itself. You are not permitted, by way of example not limitation, to decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, modify, alter or change the software or any associated embedding bits. You hereby acknowledge that the unauthorized modification or customization of the Font Software shall be an infringement of TypoBrand's rights, causing irreparable harm. If you are interested in creating and/or utilizing customized Font Software, contact TypoBrand for more information.

6. Exclusive ownership. TypoBrand, its licensors, and their successors and assigns each retain all right and title to their respective software, trademarks, copyrights and the designs embodied in the Font Software. You hereby agree that this term is contractual in nature and that the unauthorized use of the design of the Font and/or the Font Software shall be an infringement of TypoBrand's rights, causing significant monetary harm. You further agree that such damages cannot be readily estimated and that TypoBrand shall be entitled, without the obligation of a bond, to seek a restraining order or injunctive relief, in addition to other remedies, to prevent any unauthorized uses.

7. Limited distribution. You are permitted to make a temporary copy of the Font Software for use by a commercial printer or service bureau solely for use in the production of your own materials. Copying and distribution to commercial printers or service bureaus is limited to those who clearly state that they are duly licensed to use the Font Software. 8. PDF embedding. You are permitted to embed the Font Software in Adobe® Acrobat® (PDF) documents, solely for the purposes of presenting freely distributed information and designs to others or for sending designs to a service bureau or printer for output or other preparation for production. Use of Font Software in or to create PDF documents for sale or products utilizing other forms of embedding of the Font Software for sale (for example as part of a commercial product such as a design template, or an electronic book, or an electronic magazine, or use with a mobile device) is prohibited, and requires the purchase of a special license which may or may not be granted at the discretion of TypoBrand. You hereby agree that any PDF shall be made in a secure manner that allows only viewing and printing of the PDF, and not the editing or alteration of the content. Font Software shall be SUBSET when embedded and the PDF document shall be set as NON-EDITABLE. If you are not sure how to subset and/or create non-editable PDFs, consult the manual or publisher of the software application from which you are exporting PDFs. You are not permitted to embed the entire character set or substantially all of the character set comprising any Font that is subject to this License.

9. Internet & webfont use. You are permitted to use the Fonts to make GIF, JPEG, and PNG pixel-based images for use on the Internet as part of a website design provided that the image creation is not automated, the images are made personally by a Licensed User and not generated by a server, and that no embedding or other transmission of the Font Software is made possible. Converting the Font Software to other Font format(s) is expressly prohibited.
